① Dear: Dean, Faculty of Agriculture-Kasetsart University,

9:60 a.m.

Invitation to participate in The 6th World Peace Ethics Contest for Young People
In University and College

The World Peace Ethics Club aims to offer this opportunity to every group of young people who can be encouraged to raise their morality levels through learning and education. Education is regarded as universal knowledge that all people whatever their ethnic background or religion can understand. Students are enabled to put into practice the moral principles gained from this education directly into their everyday lives.

For the reasons already mentioned above, the project organizer would like to invite students year 1 to 4 to apply for the contest. The application forms should be submitted to the World Peace Ethics Club by no later than 25th December 2014.

We would appreciate your kind assistance and hope to receive your cooperation to help us successfully raise awareness of moral values amongst young people. Most importantly, your participation significantly creates knowledgeable and virtuous youths for Thai society and for the world.

Thank you for your kind attention and we would like to take this opportunity to rejoice in your good will.

Yours faithfully,

Aunchalee Trinate-

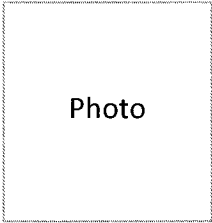

(Miss Aunchalee Trinate)

The Sixth World Peace Ethics Contest (World-PEC) 2014 for Young People in College and University Winning Commemorative Plaques, Certificates and Scholarships

1. Background

College and university students are our future generations; they play an important role in leading us to build a better society and help to develop our country. Therefore, we should encourage our young people in college and university today to learn morality and ethics. This is universal knowledge that people of any race, religion and creed can learn. The teachings of morality can be applied to their daily lives, and we can benefit from success in both the material and spiritual aspects of their self-development.

Consequently, World Peace Ethics Contest (World-PEC) for Young People in College and University was held for the first time in 2009 under the cooperation of the Dhammakaya Foundation and the World Peace Ethics Club. The students are encouraged to learn moral principles through reading the book entitled, 'Family Day by Day' (English book for English language and Chinese book for Chinese language) this can help them to live proper lives based on the firm foundations of moral integrity.

2. Objectives

2.1 To promote students to learn basic moral principles, which are universal knowledge that people of any race, religion and creed can apply to their daily lives.

2.2 To encourage students to creatively and morally develop themselves and have good manners in daily lives, which brings warmth of heartedness into the family environment.

2.3 To teach the students to morally and worldly become well-rounded citizens who are ready to lead a well developed and peaceful country, and look towards world peace.
